

Lanna society

Concept and Level of social relations/organizations

1. A person (tua, king)
2. A family living in a house (huen)
3. A village (ban)
4. A city-state (Muang)

Diagram showing three levels of spatial Organization

- Huen
- Ban
- Muang

1. A person: concept

- ▶ A person is composed of body (tua/king), mind (jai) and soul (Khwan)

Deities: God, Goddess, Supreme beings

Khwan is closely related with spirits (can be harmed by spirits)

Khwan=spirit/soul/vital essence

- Khwan concept
 - Invisible, living in many parts of the body
 - Can flee away/wander if frightened (by accident/forces of spirits/being beaten etc.)
- Khwan should be strong, fasten to the body
- Khwan of a person/animal/ a village/city = Khwan ban
Khwan muang
- To make a body/house/city strong
 - => organizing the 'kwan calling/feeding' ritual

2. Huen = house

A space for a family/families

- 1) Courtship and marriage
- 2) House style
- 3) Women's role in a family

1) Courtship and marriage of the Tai Yuan

□ Courtship

- Courtship
- Infringement of ancestral spirits (phid phi)

EP. 1 ประเพณีการเฒ่าสาวคืออะไร

EP. 1-13 การสืบสานประเพณีแต่งงานล้านนา

□ Marriage

- Dowry
- Wrist tying ritual

□ Men come to live with women's family

□ Nuclear family and monogamy

❑ House location

- Usually, a new couple builds their own house. The last daughter's family lives with parents and inherits the house and land
- Households in a village are traditionally matrilineal related

3) Women's role in a family

- ➡ An eldest daughter is the leader of the matrilineal clan. The position is called 'kao phi' (head spirit) who is responsible for the regular organization of the maternal ancestral spirit rituals, which can be divided into many types: phi pu ya, phi mod or phi meng.

2. Ban = Moo Ban or village

* Village name/identity

The villages are named after the certain geographical settings, names of original villages, legends etc.

3. Concept of mueng(muang)

- Muang = City state = basic unit of ancient political/administrative system
- Muang is ruled by the Lord of muang = Chao Fa (Lord from sky)/phaya (chief)
- Muang in Lanna is usually situated in the river basin, closed to the mountain
- Muang is relatively autonomous but subjected to bigger muang or kingdom

MAP 5. LOCATION OF ANCIENT MUEANG IN CHIANG RAI AND ITS VICINITY

(Drawn after Sarassawadee Ongsakul, Prawatsat Lan Na, p. 32)

เมืองเชียงใหม่ พ.ศ.2497

* Important muang before Chiang Mai(Lanna kingdom)*

➡ Muang on Kok and Ing river basin
(around Chiang Saen, Chiang Rai and Phayao)

➡ Muang on Ping, Kuang and Wang river basin
Hariphunchai (8th-11th century) (Lamphun)

=> Muang on Yom and Kuang river basin (Phrae and Nan Province at present)

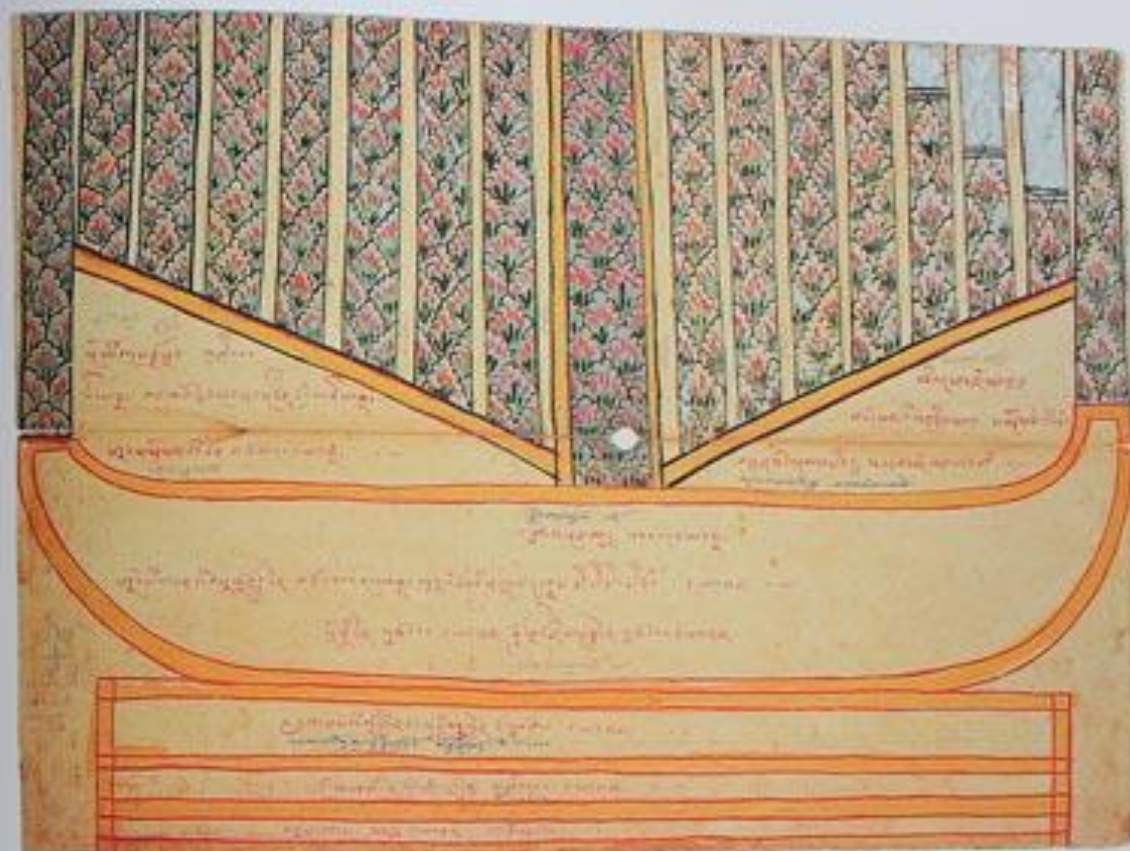

- What is muang? What is the local term used in your locality?
- Were the ancient cities always set up in the lowland?
- Why the ancient city (Muang, Chiang) is likely to be set up in the river basin or along the main river?
